| Everyone introduced themselves. This has been a changing world in the last two weeks. We think we have come to a place to move the word forward in the virtual world. This was the best thought to those dealing with this virus. It's a really scary and unknown time. We hope not to lose too much momentum but it is just a day at a time. We are hoping Zoom will be easier to work with  | Welcome and Introductions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Review Agenda</li> </ul>   | Notes 2020 Feb Fatherhood Interag        |

It helps to look at these stories to be able to pull apart the pieces to craft the Vision and Mission Statements.             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Stories that Kyle has gotten so far would have the themes of children and caring by communities.</li> <li>• The biggest part that would help would the process is Impact- all the changes for the better. The action of drafting a Mission Statement would come from the small group.</li> <li>• Gave participants the ability to share stories now about what has been done as part of the Fatherhood Council.</li> <li>• Next time we have meeting we will take those themes and draft a Mission Statement.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> | Mission Planning session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Collecting Stories that captures what the Fatherhood Council does or plans to do</li> </ul> | Collecting Stories.pdf                 |

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This environmental scan will only work if everyone can contribute. We will put together an overview blurb to put together with the link embedded. This may be an issue with COVID crisis response being off tilt. We will go ahead and launch, but be realistic. We may need a good effort after the virus response concludes.</li> <li>• The key to our success is that it is up to all of us and getting back to Amanda with where you sent it. If you sent it via e-mail please open copy her. Amanda will also send out reminders that you can forward. We are excited to get this data and we are relying on everyone to get the word out.</li> </ul>  |  |  |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Two big issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What is our focus? Do we want a key note speaker?</li> <li>• The second part is how do we finance the summit? It's going to take a smaller group of people to put their energy around this summit. Is it time to think about this or would be put it on the back burner?</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Two topical areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• One would be a connection to poverty reduction work and tie fatherhood to that. Having a pre-summit day to connect fathers.</li> <li>• The other idea might Nurturing Fatherhood curriculum. One of our peers uses NFP in a regional way in Massachusetts and they've offered to talk with us. It might be a corner stone of building a network strategy around dads.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Is this even the right time to have this conversation? I don't want to put pressure on us to come up with a speaker and then find out we can't even get folks together. Everyone voted to move forward with planning the summit. A planning meeting will take place this month. | 3rd annual Washington Fatherhood Summit planning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Forming a Summit Committee</li> <li>• Choosing a focus? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tying it to poverty reduction</li> <li>• Nurturing Fatherhood curriculum</li> </ul> </li> </ul> |  |
